Last night Lotts had another good audience at the Memphis Theater, the play being Zip, or Point Lynde Light. The piece, while abounding with ludicrous failures sufficient to afford mirth and light amusement, has here and there its pathetic features, admirably drawn and effectively contrasted with that which is comic and laughable. The piece was not only well mounted, but presented in good style, Lotta as 'Zip" and also as "Alice Elkton," and Mr. Locke as "Philosophy Jack." being the most interesting characters in the play. Mr. Couldock as "Father Phelpe" gave an exhibition of that talent which he so eminently possesses and which has not been impaired by age. He is still the Couldock of yore, and at all times natural in his acting and effective in what he does and says. Tonight Zip will be repeated, and we hope to see a large and fashionable audience present to enjoy this interesting play, which, with Lotts, Couldock, Locke and the other members of the company, will be an entertainment of a very enjoyable character. To-morrow after-noon will be presented Musette, in which Lotta makes her farewell appearance.

Come to the Scratch. EDITORS APPEAL-1 call the attention of your readers to the following from the Evening Ledger of yesterday: Every Democratic State platform adopted this and last year has been liveral in its tenthis and last year has been liceral in its ten-dencies. Tennesses stands in the line with her sister States. The only Democratic or-ganization in the State stands upon a Demo-cratic-Conservative platform. This has been indorsed by the congressional, district and county conventions since held, and which are the latest authoritative utterances of the marky.

Who denies the assertion? What Democratic platform has shown a disposition to be illiberal? And by what authority were these platforms, so highly extolled by the Ledger, put forth? Was it by a Democratic convention, or by a Democratic executive committee? Conventions have a right to make platforms, but executive committees have not. And that is all, as I understand it, that the APPEAL contends for. Will the Ledger enlighten the public with its ideas of what an executive committee is authorized to do in the way of platform-making or passing resolutions to fix the policy of the party by which it has been brought into existence to serve? This is the point in question, but the Ledger has been gabbling away, goose like, for two days without touching it. I have opposed the action of the Democratic executive committee, selected by of the sesson. All who attend will be a Democratic mass-meeting for the pur pose of calling a Democratic convention to choose a candidate for mayor, and to make a platform, because the said executive committee assumed authority which I deny they have, to pass a resolution that a convention only has the Resolved, That it is the sense of this commit-ce that all the Democratic, Conservative and aberal citizens of this city be requested to mite in the election of delegates to a conven-ion to be held for the nomination of a candi-late for mayor of Memphis.

I repeat that the committee had ot, nor has not, the right to make such legislation as the above. Its duty and power are simply to call a Democratic convention, for the purpose of selecting a candidate for mayor; to fix the day of holding such convention; to apportion the number of delegates from each ward who shall sit in the convention, and to use every endeavor to have the nominee of the convention elected. Invitations for support of the nominee, and the resolutions to give political complexion to the convention making the nomination, must come from the convention itself, and not from the executive committee. If the Ledger opcease its wide-spread, foolish and pointless twaddle. GOOD FAITH.

Works and not Faith Wanted. EDITORS APPEAL—In reading your editorial this morning, and the com-munication of "Good Faith," the idea suggested itself to me to ask you to define, or give Webster's definition of "Democrat," "Democratic," and "Democracy." Then I should like for yourself and "Good Faith" to comment on those definitions, and show (if you can) that to be a Democrat is to be a blat int party slave, without principles, and, that one who adheres strictly to the princi-ple of "popular government" as Democracy is defined to be, is a radical. I tell you, Messrs. Editors, there are a number of people who don't believe either of the above propositions, and they are not -Last night a stranger, with his va-line, went to the Arkansas house, on Faith," and indersed by you, unless it is supported by reason, common sense and honesty. THE DEATH-SENTENCE.

Copy of the Supreme Court Judgments in the Case of Frank Scott, John Jefferson and Bill Willinms.

Sheriff Anderson yesterday received certified copies of the death-sentence passed by the supreme court of Tennessee upon Frank Scott, Bill Williams and John Jefferson, colored men, convicted of murder in this county. Scott and Williams are to be harged Christmas eve, a rather strange day for an execution. This has aroused no little com-ment, and caused many to speak harshly of the supreme court for selecting Christmas eve, as it would seem that such will cause a skeleton present at the Christmas feast of our public. The following is a copy of THE DEATH-SENTENCE in the case of Frank Scott:

And, therefore, the said plaintiff in error, Frank Scott, is brought to the bar of the court and asked if he has anything further to say why the sentence of the law should not be passed upon him, and he saying nothing further than he has already said, the court proceeds to pass the following sentence, which is that he, the said Frank Scott, be remanded to the jail of Madison county, thence to be taken by the sheriff of said county, as soon as practicable, to the jail of Shelby county and delivered to the keeper thereof, to be therein securely kept until Friday, the twenty-fourth day of December, 1875, when he will be taken by the sheriff of Shelby county, between the hours of ten | For Helena, Friars Point, Carson's Landing, o'clock in the morning and two o'clock in the afternoon, to a gailows, to be erected within one mile of the court-

Colonel W. H. Bolton, of Greenville, Exonerated by the United States Grand Jury.

The United States grand jury at Jackson refused to find a bill against W. H. Bolton, of Greenville, for alleged irregularities against the United States in the matter of the Greenville postoffice. As we printed the charge against Colonel Bolton, we do him the justice to publish the report of the grand jury:

UNITED STATES GRAND JURY ROOM Jackson, Miss., November 18, 1875. To Hon. R. A. Hill, United States Judge:

Sire—The graped jury impaneled at the present term of your court, now in session, have been in discharge of their duty as charged by you. Among other matters before us, we have investigated the allegations against Colonel W. H. Boiton, of complicity in certain post-office defalcations at Greenville, Washington county, Mississippi, and we beg leave to report to your honor that, after full investigation, we find that he is in full investigation, we find that he is in no way connected by the evidence therewith, and in our estimation stands wholly acquitted of all complicity in said transactions. We therefore submit this statement to your honor for such action as you may deem proper. Re-

IN OBEDIENCE TO A DECREE OF THE Chancery Court of Sheiby county, made in the case of R. S. Adams vs. the Memphis and Little Rock Rallroad Company and others, I will, on in front of the Commandant's House, in the Navy-Yard, proceed to seil, at public auction, to the highest bidder, on a credit of six, twelve and eighteen months, the entire NAVY-YARD PROPERTY, with all the improvements thereto belonging, the sale to be made in lots, as per survey and subdivision lately made by A. J. Murray, Engineer, and a map showing the size and position of each lot and part tot can be seen at the counting room of C. W. Goyer & Co., 22 Front street, and at the office of the clerk and Master of said court.

Many of these lots have valuable improvements; and the bidder is especially referred to the "Commandant's House"—a spacious building commanding a splendid view of the river, and fronting to be west on Promenade street, which is well paved. Most of the houses are well built and have good cisterns attached; and that portion of the property fronting west on Promenade street, and west of the vertical wall, is suited to manufacturing purposes as well as any piece of land in the country.

Parts of this property are under leases to good paying tenants at fair and remomerative prices, the leases running to 18%, 187 and 1888; all of which will appear by the map, ard the lots will be sold subject to said leases.

Purchasers to give notes, bearing interest from date, with approved security, and a lien to be retained until the purchase money is paid.

Immediate toosession will be given to all paid.

Immediate rossession will be given to all property not under lease.
The title is inought perfect.
Sale to begin at 10 o'cicck a.m. of said day, and continue from day to day till all said land is sold.
